

Summary Overview of QNB's Key Policies

QNB Group maintains detailed policies and procedures to ensure that they fulfill and meet the requirements set by the local regulatory authorities. The key policies have been summarised within the table below.

No.	Policy Name	Key Policies Highlighted (Not an Exhaustive List)
1	Board Policy	 Disclosures Corporate Governance - Corporate Governance Manual
2	Group Compliance Policy	 Disclosure and Transparency Policy Stakeholders' Rights Policy Conflict of Interest & Insider Dealing Policy Whistle Blowing
3	Customer Acceptance Policy	Simplified Due Diligence
4	Chinese Walls Policy	Confidential InformationConflict of Interest
5	Group Financial Control Policy	 Mergers and Acquisitions - Disclosures and Regulatory Approvals Accounting Policy Investor Relations Investors Relations - Shareholders Communications
6	Human Capital Global Policy	 Employee Conduct - Confidentiality - Disclosure of Confidential Information Human Resource Services - Employee Information/Files Disciplinary - Violations and Disciplinary Actions Matrix
7	Group Liquidity Risk Management Policy	Public Disclosure
8	Group-Wide Policy	 Confidentiality - Disclosure of Confidential Information QNB Employees Membership in Other Companies BOD - Disclosure and Reporting Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy
9	Asset and Wealth Management Policy	 Conflict of Interest Disclosure Asset Management - Fund Managers Asset Management - Funds Documents
10	Group Communications Policy	Advertising - General
11	Group Internal Audit Policy	Policy Statements - Standards and Best Practices
12	Group IT Policy	IT Infrastructure Policy
13	Group Risk Policy	 Information Security Policy Cyber Security Policy Information Ownership and Classification Policy